

Hear! Here!

ISSUE 1·MARCH 1995

Pat Goldring (Executive Director) and Rose Parlons (volunteer) at the JDA's North East London Resource Centre in Stoke Newington

Resource Centres thrive as JDA raises profile

Now with two thriving Advisory and Resource Centres - in Golders Green and Stoke Newington - the JDA is embarking upon a co-ordinated programme of activity to make the community aware of its services - and the need for the kind donations which keep it operating!

JDA
JEWISH DEAF ASSOCIATION

Helping all deaf and hard of hearing people

Story Time for the young

The smile says it all - a young member enjoying a 'signed' story.

Volunteers' Luncheon A chance to say thank you to our helpers

A rare opportunity to express our thanks to all those who have been instrumental in making the JDA such a caring service, at our half yearly luncheon.

Marathon man makes his mark

Robert Graham ran the London Marathon in 1994 and raised a fantastic £7,000 for the JDA. Robert is seen here presenting the cheque and receiving the grateful thanks of Martin Bogard, Chairman of the Deaf Committee.

Antony Rabin - Co-ordinator of Koleinu, a project for Jewish Deaf Children.

Letting the fingers do the talking!

Young visitors enjoying an animated 'chat' with a deaf member at the JDA's Deaf Club.

It's all in the wrist action!

Myer Solomon, a deaf member, shows off the Badminton Gold Medal won by Martin Bogard at the World Deaf Games in Copenhagen, Denmark.

JDA Reaches Out To The Community

At a recent visit by Reverend Plaskow, a helper passes on the message by touch to one of our deaf/blind members.

Gee, Mr. President, its a Great Party !

The President of the JDA, George M. Gee, with deaf children at our Chanukah Party.

Mayor visits Golders Green Resource Centre

The Mayor of Barnet, Councillor Ellis Hillman, visited the JDA's Advisory and Resource Centre in Golders Green in February. The JDA Chairman, Mrs Evelyn Gee, guided the Mayor around the Centre and showed him examples of the equipment on display.

Also present at this auspicious occasion were David Williams (Chairman of Barnet Social Services), Reverend Michael Plaskow, Philip Brackman (JDA P.R. officer and Spectrum Radio's 'Man of the Year') and many Honorary Officers, staff and volunteers.

During his address to the guests, the Mayor said how impressed he was with the Centre, particularly as it is open to the whole community.

JDA
JEWISH DEAF ASSOCIATION

Helping all deaf and hard of hearing people