

Celebration at JDA centre

A SPECIAL celebration has been held marking one year since the Jewish Deaf Association opened their new community centre in North Finchley.

The Chief Rabbi, Dr Jonathan Sacks, was the guest of honour at the ceremony, and was taken on a tour of the building during which he praised the JDA's efforts in fundraising.

The charity held a separate party on Sunday afternoon for more than 100 members of the JDA, volunteers and staff who work at the community centre.

Executive director Pat Goldring said: "There were no special VIPs present here and the day was said to be a complete success!"

She added: "The centre is now fully operational, with social, cultural and educational programmes are running six days a week."

Guest of honour: Chief Rabbi Dr Jonathan Sacks