

Jewish Deaf Association celebratory tea for King Charles and Sue Cipin

The Jewish Deaf Association celebrating the Coronation

The Jewish Deaf Association community gathered together to commemorate the coronation of King Charles III in Finchley.

They also congratulated Chief Executive, Sue Cipin, on the award of her OBE. Her investiture took place at Windsor Castle yesterday.

Congratulatory speeches were made by members of the JDA team with a response by Sue.

Chairman of Trustees, Trudy Kling, said:

"This was an enjoyable and significant afternoon for our JDA community and fitting tribute to Sue for her marvellous work and dedication to JDA."

Sue commented: "What an amazing afternoon and a sincere thank you to everyone involved for making this such a wonderful occasion."
