for

Jewish Deaf Association,
90/92 Cazenove Road, London N16 6AB.
on
Sunday 26th June 1988 at 6.00 p.m.

: Sid Maxwell,
WOJD Vice-President

During the 3rd World Convention held at Tel-Aviv, Israel, 24th to 30th April 1988: I am very pleased and delighted to say that the outcome results had turned out to be very successful and we had reached more positive goals toward the future of the WOJD. Which I know and strongly believe that we can work together to make good progresses for the WOJD as a good and strong team, from now till the next World Convention in 1992.

Here are the following report which I am trying to cover all the important points as I can:-

On Sunday 24th April, we had the WOJD Bureau meeting started at 9.30 a.m. and did not finished as scheduled till 4.00 p.m.

Here are the following agenda:-

1. An introduction of delegates-members.
2. Greeting of WOJD Vice-President and a leader of this meeting - Dr. Isidore Spokojny.
3. WOJD Secretary-General's report of 1981 to 1988 by Chaim Apter.
4. Financial report by Moshe Bamberger, WOJD Treasurer.
5. Audit report by the Association of the Deaf in Israel.
6. Discussion on renewed WOJD Constitution.
7. Policy and projects - proposals.
8. Proposal - candidates for WOJD President, Secretary-General, Treasurer and Vice-President.
9. Proposal of number of Bureau Members.
10. Confirmation of an agenda for the general Assembly on 25th April (i.e. the next day).

SUMMARY

I am going to summarise this agenda of the Bureau meeting very briefly as follows:-

- a) We had received letters of apology from Alexander Fleischman of USA, the outgoing WOJD President and Maurice Sebban of France, and they wished us every success of this Convention. Also from Joseph Goldwirt of Belgium, Emil Stryker and Myer Solomon of England and the other members - delegates from USA who were unable to attend this World Convention.
Those who were attended this meeting are the observers from USA , England, Uruguay, France, Italy, Hungary, Sweden and Australia.
Murray Holmes, Vice-President of the World Federation of the Deaf and Vice-Chairman of the British Deaf Association attended there, and he was given a warm welcome by the WOJD Bureau.
- b) The report was given by WOJD Secretary-General, Chaim Apter refering the occurrences of between 1981 and 1988 which were clearly understood and satisfactory. Mr. Apter felt that his job-position is most- tiring and he need more help and more cooperation with his office-work. The Bureau agreed to look at this matter of the Secretary-General's role as soon as possible.

- c) Financial and Audit Reports^{*} were given by Mr. Moshe Bamberger, the WOJD Treasurer and Mr. Moshe Shem-Tov of the Association of the Deaf in Israel. The reports were satisfactory. Mr. Bamberger now retired from his position as WOJD Treasurer; He desperately feel that we need more money to be putted into the WOJD Fund. The Bureau agreed to look into this matter seriously and agreed to set up a fund-raising committee. They thanked Mr. Bamberger for his good and devoted work to the WOJD, since he took this position as a treasurer.
- d) There had been a strong and heated debate over the new WOJD Constitution which are not very clear and not very straightforward; as it is seemed to be rather ambiguous and too much overlapping with one another, which the Bureau felt that these matters need to be sorted out. Therefore the Bureau had agreed in deciding to set up a special committee referring to law and statue changes of the WOJD Constitution for one year only, as a priority, till Spring 1989. Thus the new WOJD Constitution has now been discarded or in another word, scrapped; and so therefore we are now returning back to the old WOJD Constitution for the time-being.
- e) Such important proposals had been approved and putted forward to the meetings as follows:-
1. Setting up a better system-structure of management in the WOJD Administration.
 2. Setting up a special committee referring to law and statue changes of the WOJD Constitution for one year only as a top priority.
 3. Setting up a new committee on public relations.
 4. Setting up a new Committee on fund-raising.
 5. Confirmation to Emil Stryker's name as one of the founders of WOJD.
 6. Setting up an organising-committee for World Convention 1992.
- and so forth.
- f) i) Candidates for the next WOJD President were Dr. T. Alan Hurwitz and Mr. Sid Maxwell, and the election to be held on Monday 25th April (i.e. the next day) at the General Assembly.
- ii) Election for WOJD Secretary-General and WOJD Treasurer will be referred to the next day, i.e. Monday 25th April. The date of the election for Vice-President of WOJD will be on Thursday 28th April.
- g) It was agreed to reduce a number of Bureau members as follows:-

OLD	NEW
5 members (USA)	2 members (USA)
6 " (ISRAEL)	3 " (ISRAEL)
4 " (EUROPE)+	2 " (EUROPE) ^X

SUMMARY (Cont.)

e) Issues:

- i) It is still undecided of the new dates of the next WOJD Convention to be held in Paris in 1992. Awaiting for further information from Patrick Leven, chairperson, as soon as possible.
- ii) It was agreed that we should have communication system network such as electronic mail, etc. and we are going to pursue this matter as quickly as possible.
- iii) It was agreed also that we should change the letter-headings of all WOJD Stationaries.
- iv) Emil Stryker's Award, as named in his honour, the highest prize, will be presented to those who are dedicated and loyal to the work for the deaf community, internally and externally of the WOJD, as proposed by Sid Maxwell. All agreed unanimously at the Bureau meeting.

Comment: It was an excellent and successful Convention which I really, had a most enjoyable time, especially meeting a lot of different people, both deaf and hearing alike. We had succeeded a lot, by exchanging ideas and conversations as well as exchanging addresses for further future communication and other interesting topics, whether it is scientific, medical and psychological or any other matter that to do with the deaf which involves within the WOJD. I had received beautiful hospitalities and warm welcome from all the Israeli officials of the WOJD as well as my Israeli Friends. It was an absolutely marvellous week.

At the International Seminar on Deafness, they gave us important lectures, which they did give me a lot of food for thought especially on such specific topics about deaf people and their special needs as well as deaf-blind awareness. Also talked about the other important topics such as deaf-role of leadership in the deaf community, deaf-community in the Holocaust, sign-languages and deaf-cultures, etc.

Rev. Michael Plaskow was attended there at the Seminar and he made a very good speech which astonished the whole audience about an induction-loop system and sign-language interpreters in every synagogue, here in England and worldwide, on Shabbat and other holy-days which can be done without violating the traditional Jewish law.

I went to social parties, again exchanging ideas and conversations; also to different deaf theatres and shows, I am really delighted and proud to say that the London Deaf Drama Group had made an excellent performance, and I received a lot of compliments from an international audience, on their behalf.

Besides, I feel it was a great pity that you all could not come and to enjoy in being with us in Israel, but I do understand of your commitments that prevents you all from coming; perhaps another time you all be able to do so.

However, I do strongly, believe that the WOJD have, now, got the good future; at last, the WOJD have better basic foundation than ever before, and it can, now, stand on its own two feet.

I wish to appeal to you all by joining us as individual members of the WOJD, so that we can all be united, hand in hand, in order to make the WOJD a firm and strong international Jewish Deaf organisation, where we can have our own pride as being Jewish deaf and to be proud of our own identity. I also wish to appeal to you all by helping me to set up the WOJD Fund here to cover all the expenses for postage, printing, stationery, etc. which came out of my pockets: As well, I would be very much appreciated if I can obtain your help with manpower as well as brainpower, in order to make this organisation to be on the lead and to keep it going.

I would like to thank you for being here at this meeting and also to thank you for your attention in reading this report for those who were unable to attend this meeting, not only from me but from the Board and the Bureau of the WOJD in which I am represented on their behalf.

THANK YOU ONCE AGAIN.

Sid Maxwell,
WOJD Vice-President.
